

TMA NextGen Membership Benefits

What is NextGen?

NextGen is the young professionals segment of the Turnaround Management Association (TMA), the leading global professional association for professionals involved in turnaround management, corporate restructuring, workouts, and distressed investing. NextGen members are typically ages 35 and under. Contact the TMA Australia National Office (info@turnaround.org.au or 1300 042 811) to learn more about whether you would benefit from NextGen involvement.

NextGen Mission Statement

To selectively provide high-quality, high-impact, and affordable education and networking opportunities that will attract and retain new members from target segments and enhance the TMA NextGen brand

Is NextGen right for you?

NextGen was created for professionals in the following industry segments: lawyers, financial advisors, service providers, turnaround professionals, restructuring and M&A consultants, investment bankers, distressed debt investors, PE firms, hedge funds, lenders/corporate bankers, and workout professionals

What are the benefits of being a NextGen Member?

- Connect:
 - Develop new business relationships or manage existing relationships in a fun and relaxed atmosphere without pressure from the presence of senior partners; discuss professional experiences with your peers to gain insight and better understanding about the industry.
 - Build a network of lawyers, financial advisors, turnaround practitioners, investment bankers, capital providers, leverage finance and distressed investors at your peer level.
- Advance
 - Broad based education programs incorporating leadership, career development, and soft skill topics that are key to building a successful career.
 - Increase your social awareness and understanding of the industry.
 - Grow your marketing base, promote your firm, and stand out among your peers.
 - Gain a broader perspective of technical issues and market trends in turnaround, restructuring, and distressed investing from senior leaders, who you may not traditionally have access to outside of their files / deals.
- Join
 - Gain access to an existing network of young professionals, targeted education, and networking events at discounted prices.
 - Participate and take on leadership roles in your region's NextGen committee.
 - NextGen membership means that you are part of the TMA organisation and offers over 40 events annually, around Australia for you to take part in.

Why is NextGen different from other organisations?

- No other professional organisation provides the same level of opportunity to meet other young professionals from all of the above industry segments in one place
- Highly active, well-developed global NextGen committee and chapter NextGen committee structures
- NextGen membership is linked to being part of a broader TMA organization – most events are free for members
- Opportunity to get involved in the leadership of NextGen committees

What does it cost to join TMA?

TMA offers young professional members ages 35 and under of A$155 (+ GST). The discount is approx. 50% off the annual standard TMA member dues (normally $330). Membership is renewed each calendar year. NextGen membership is available for a total of 2 years or until the age of 36.
