

James is global co-head of Ashurst's Restructuring and Special Situations Group and a member of the Ashurst Board.

Recognised as one of Australia's preeminent restructuring practitioners, James specialises in restructuring, insolvency and special situations.

His practice includes: acting for lenders and creditors to help manage their credit risk; advising parties who are active in the secondary debt markets; advising boards in relation to the financial restructuring of distressed companies; and distressed mergers and acquisitions. He regularly acts for lending syndicates to distressed companies and advises in respect of formal insolvency administrations.

James has extensive cross-border experience, including advising offshore investors into Australia, restructurings involving offshore funders, advising Australian companies with offshore funders and operations

He is also committed to developing Australia's Restructuring & Insolvency framework and regularly sits on law reform committees and contributes to the discussion and debate around proposed legislative changes.

James has been ranked as a "Star Individual" for Restructuring & Insolvency by Chambers Asia-Pacific since 2011, and was named Lawyer of the Year for Insolvency & Reorganisation Law by Best Lawyers Australia 2020.

