

- 14 years of distressed investing experience including a full distress and commodity distress cycle;
- Over 20 years of credit investing experience covering the gamut of credit from investment grade through to deep distress;
- Coinvested and traded with some of the leading distressed investors globally;
- Michael was a Director in CarVal's Singapore office for 7 years where he was focussed on distressed debt and special situations in Australia and Pan-Asia. Prior to CarVal he was an Executive Director at Deutsche Bank in Hong Kong for 3 years and an Executive Director at Morgan Stanley in Hong Kong for the 3 years prior;
- Before nearly 14 years in Asia Michael held roles at Westpac Institutional Bank where he gained bottom up credit lending experience including many of Australia's leading companies and as Head of Capital Markets Research;
- Michael holds a Master of Business Administration from the University of California at Berkeley and a Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) in Chemical Engineering from the University of Sydney

