

Nikki is a Partner in the Sydney office of Herbert Smith Freehills in the Restructuring, Turnaround & Insolvency group. Nikki is an experienced finance and RT&I practitioner focussing primarily on structured finance, mezzanine finance and other bespoke financing solutions, particularly in special situations or distressed contexts. Nikki acts for private equity funds, alternative investment funds, global hedge funds, investment banks and other financial institutions on a broad range of financing matters including special situations lending, rescue finance and restructurings, structured finance, complex real estate financing transactions, and distressed loan portfolio sales.

Nikki's recent significant matters include:

- advising Bain Capital on its acquisition of the Virgin Australia group out of administration.
- advising Allegro Funds on its acquisition of the Toll Global Express business.
- advising Tor Investment Management on its financing to Tellus Holdings Ltd.
- advising Bain Capital Credit and Goldman Sachs Special Situations Group in relation to the holdco PIK note financing of the Australian Technology Innovators group to fund its US expansion.

