

Andrew Craig

Andrew Craig is the global co-head of the digital economy industry practice at Ashurst.

Andrew advises corporates, private equity firms and financial institutions on a wide range of technology transactions including cross border M&A, carve-outs, business separation, outsourcing and commercial transactions for clients in sectors including TMT, pharma, financial services and large industrials.

Link: Andrew Craig