

Claudine Salameh

Claudine Salameh is a partner in K&L Gates' finance practice. She focuses on restructuring and insolvency, banking disputes and financial services regulation. Claudine has over 24 years of experience acting for creditors and insolvency practitioners in formal insolvency appointments and negotiated restructuring or forbearance outcomes. She is highly skilled in managing competing stakeholder interests on large and complex insolvencies and achieving results that are practical and commercial.